

ReLovenship™ Look Within to Love Again! Inspires people to take another shot at true love!

Waited long enough to find the perfect blissful relationship? Discovering that great, fulfilling connection is within reach!

ReLovenship™ Look Within to Love Again! is an inspiring, action-oriented workbook and empowering methodology that can help people attract the fulfilling relationship they have been looking for. Today's online dating and matchmaking industry in the U.S grosses over $2 billion annually, catering to the nation's 100 million single adults. But regardless of all the ways to search for and vet potential partners, failed romance still seems to be inevitable.

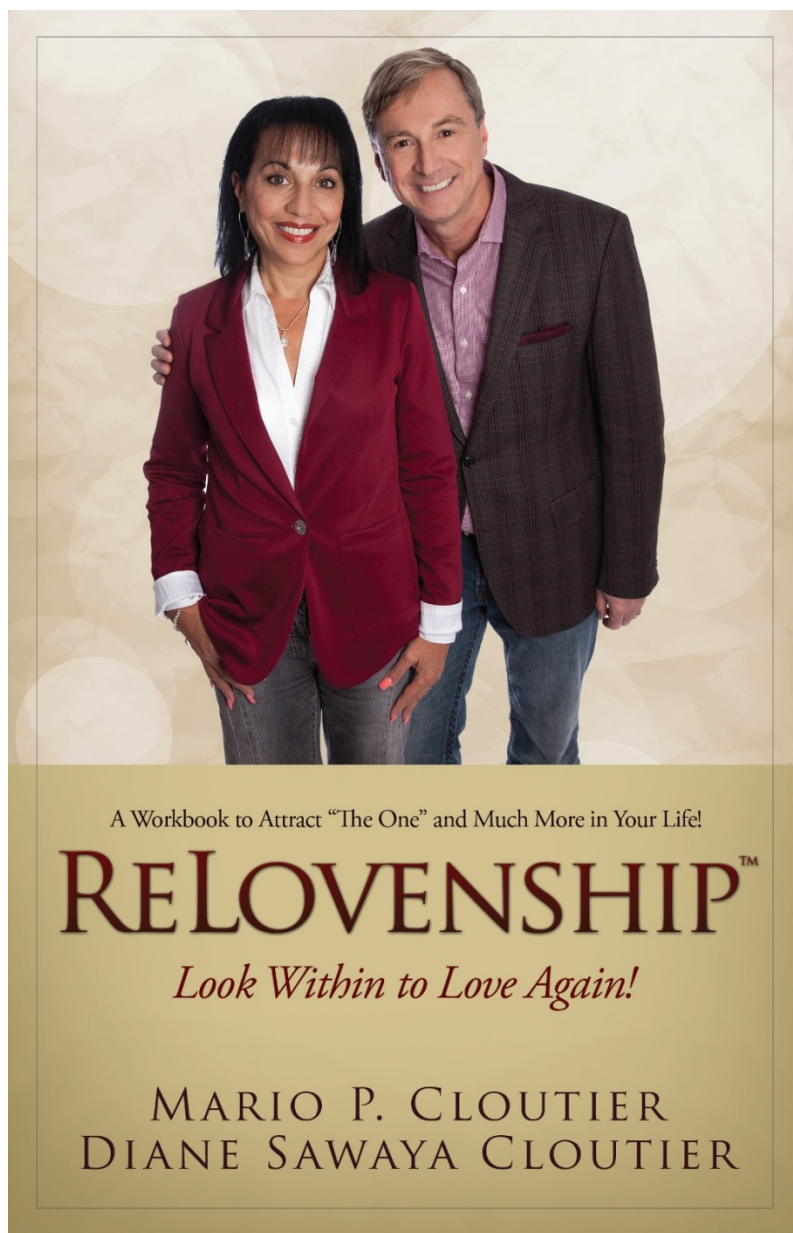

Love advisors, Mario and Diane Cloutier have some guidance for people who are looking to get back on the dating bandwagon after a fall; step back to better assess personal values and priorities so that the same painful patterns are not continually repeated. Finding a soul mate—or "the one" as they call it — can't be left solely to chance. It takes dedication, a mindset shift and a systematic methodology, especially when a person has lived through one or more major breakups.

So, how does a person get there? That is where ReLovenship™: Look Within to Love Again! comes in. It's not a "wishful thinking" kind of book. It is an encouraging, take action workbook filled with tips and questions one needs to ask oneself to finally find true love.

"Looking at the staggering growth of the online dating and matchmaking industry year on year makes it evident that countless people are looking to fill up a void in their love life. In fact, if you check your immediate environment you'll probably find a few individuals who have had a few heartbreaks but are still searching "the one." They just don't know where to look, or, just seem to repeat the same failing patterns over and over again.

When Diane and I were confronted with that reality in our own surrounding, we were stunned to find out that there were not a lot of answers out there for these individuals. I mean there are a lot of books from psychologists and the likes, but few by regular folks who have been in the trenches so to speak, have had failed relationships, but finally found a way to attract and live a blissful one like we did. So we set out on a mission to provide people with a step-by-step methodology, a "hands on" empowering plan to attract a soul mate while

About The Authors

Authors Mario P. Cloutier and Diane Sawaya Cloutier are not psychologists, but rather, they are individuals who each experienced breakups and divorces before finally attracting a blissful relationship. They met in 1995, became romantically involved in 1998 and married in 2001. They have been fascinated by “soul mate relationships” after being told, and realizing, that very few people succeed in attracting “the one” after they lived through one or more serious breakups. Through their own experiences and learnings with past relationships, their intention is to bring inspiration, hope and provide tools to help people attract “the one,” their soul mate or their ideal life partner.

Mario Cloutier is founder and chief creative officer of Xclamat!ion Marketing.

Diane Sawaya Cloutier enjoyed a successful career in managerial roles with Fortune 500 organizations before focusing fulltime on the couple’s ReLovership™ book and events.

They are now committed to living their purpose, which is to demonstrate how to live harmonically by co-creating with God abundant lives. Their mission right now is to inspire individuals to draw their longing soul mate, and, couples to live blissfully together.

Mario & Diane are the proud parents of three children: Noémie and Malorie, Mario’s daughters from his first marriage, and Peter, who is Diane’ son from her first marriage.
